

Means of transportation

Bob: Hello! I'm sorry to bother you, but I'm a little late. Can you help me?

Mark: Sure, no problem! How may I help you?

Bob: When is the next train to Ansonia?

Mark: Hmm, I'm not too sure, but I think the next one leaves tomorrow at 8:00 pm.

Bob: What! I can't wait that long! What time is the next bus?

Mark: It should go by in about two hours. It leaves the bus station at about 5:30 pm.

Bob: Well, I don't know. Isn't there any other option?

Mark: You could take a taxi ...

Bob: What's faster, the bus or the taxi?

Mark: The taxi, of course! All you have to do is to call, ask for a taxi and it will come immediately.

Bob: Well, yes you're right, but which is the cheapest one?

Mark: The cheapest means of transportation I know of is the subway (metro).

Bob: Yeah, but when have you ever seen a subway here in Connecticut?!

Mark: You're right. But anyways, why don't you just go walking? It only takes about 25 minutes away from here.

Bob: Oh, yeah. You're absolutely right. Thanks for your help.
